

SERMON NOTES

Robert Mulari, Connections Pastor

| Advent Season                                            | НОРЕ                                     | November 26, 2023                                      |
|----------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------|
| BIBLICAL DEFINITION: Hopromised us in the future."   | ope is "the sure and confident ex | pectation of receiving what God has                    |
| НОРЕ                                                     |                                          |                                                        |
| Neither faith nor hope will                       | be needed in heaven               |                                                        |
| Hope and faith are closely what is unseen. | tied because both operate base           | ed on trusting God and living according to      |
| Biblical hope includes not Jesus our hope.        | only the act of confident expect         | tation but also the object of it: Christ |
| What is God talking to you                               | ı about?                                 |                                                        |
| What did you learn about                                 | Hope?                                    |                                                        |
| Praying for:                                             |                                          |                                                        |