

NEHEMIAH: A LEGACY OF LEADERSHIP

Nehemiah 12:27-47

April 28, 2024

JERUSALEM REBUILT

Zerubbabel led the first wave of Jewish exiles to return in 536 B.C. (Ezra 1-6)

In 535 B.C. the construction of the temple began.

On February 18, 516 B.C. the temple was completed and dedicated.

Ezra led the second in 455 B.C. (Ezra 7-10)

Ezra left with about 1500 men and their families in mid-March 455 B.C.

In August of 455 B.C., the little group arrives safely in Jerusalem.

Nehemiah in 445 B.C. (Nehemiah 1-3)

In December of 446 B.C., Nehemiah hears of the report.

In April of 445 B.C., Nehemiah speaks with the king after a prayer period of four months.

In September, after just 52 days, the wall was completed.

LEADERSHIP PRINCIPLE #14: A leader celebrates the wins with the team.

WORSHIP

God commanded David to make specific instruments for use only by the Levites in worship to God. (2 Chronicles 7:6; 29:25-27; cf. 8:14)

The instruments were the harp, lute, lyre, cymbal, tambourine, and horn. (Psalm 150)

THOUGHTS TO PONDER:

Why is celebration an important part of a family, team, or church?

What is the greatest celebration you remember?
